16. A lawmaker, he was an outstanding member of the _______.
   (A) legislature  (B) illegal  (C) lawsuit  (D) registration

17. Private schools sometimes are stricter to their students. The schools want to _____ the behavior of students.
   (A) regulate  (B) encourage  (C) prize  (D) overlook

18. She was so stingy that she finally gave her money away _____.
   (A) reluctantly  (B) happily  (C) willingly  (D) cheerfully

19. This restaurant sells cheap and delicious food that there's always an _____ of customers waiting in line.
   (A) overheat  (B) endurable  (C) influence  (D) influx

20. The merciless ruler ____ people of the most elementary freedoms.
   (A) took away  (B) omitted  (C) allowed  (D) deprived

21. The museum has a _____ collection of jewels.
   (A) fatidic  (B) fabulous  (C) fatigable  (D) fascinated

22. The _____ of the two parts should help clarify the issue.
   (A) frustration  (B) confrontation  (C) negotiation  (D) constitution

23. Snakes, lizards, and crocodiles are ______.
   (A) reptiles  (B) poultry  (C) germs  (D) vegetarian

24. Mary is facing the _____ of obeying her father or marrying the man she loves.
   (A) dilettante  (B) pajama  (C) dilemma  (D) dogma

25. I feel _____ and honored to have worked with her so often.
   (A) privileged  (B) disappointed  (C) unhappy  (D) reluctant

26. Time cannot ____ his memories of the war. He sees the battles in his dreams all the time.
   (A) produce  (B) reinforce  (C) decrease  (D) erase

27. The Prime Minister _____ at the Cabinet meeting. He is the chairperson.
   (A) presents  (B) chairs  (C) officiates  (D) directs

28. _____ driving cost him his life in the accident.
   (A) Serious  (B) Careless  (C) Cautious  (D) Excellent

29. Exercise, enough sleep, and nutritious food are _____ to a healthy life.
   (A) responsible  (B) destructive  (C) enormous  (D) essential

30. A _____ police force helps to control crime.
   (A) violent  (B) veering  (C) vigilant  (D) vigorish